

Open Seminar Lent Term 2019 Monday 5.15pm

- January 21 Beatriz Marin-Aguilera (Renfrew Fellow, McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research, University of Cambridge)
Interweaving Affects: Textiles and Technologies of the Self in Colonial Chile
- January 28 David Samuels (Political Science, University of Minnesota)
Partisans, Antipartisans and Nonpartisans: Voting Behaviour in Brazil
- February 4 Renzo Honores (History, Pontifical Catholic University of Peru & Visiting Fellow, CLAS, University of Cambridge)
Law, Legal Culture, and Professionals in the Villa Imperial de Potosi, 1570-1670
- February 11 Jeff Garmany (Brazil Institute & Department of Geography, King's College, London)
Gentrification, Hygienization, and Processes of Urban Displacement in Brazil
- February 18 Adrián Scribano (CONICET, Argentina & Gino Germani Research Institute, Social Sciences, University of Buenos Aires; Visiting Fellow, CLAS, University of Cambridge)
Neoliberalism and Politics of Sensibilities
- February 25 Abigail Friendly (Human Geography and Spatial Planning, Utrecht University)
Planning at the Metropolitan Scale: Views from Brazil
- March 4 Ram Natarajan (Anthropology, University of Arkansas & Visiting Fellow, Wolfson College, University of Cambridge)
Violence Unresolved: A Mother, an Officer, and Argentina's Military Rule

Refreshments served after seminar all welcome

SG2 Alison Richard Building

7 West Road

Cambridge

CB3 9DT