MICHAELMAS TERM 2019

14 October
Ángel Luis Viloria Petit
Venezuelan Institute for Scientific Investigation, (IVIC), Caracas
Simón Bolívar Chair, Centre of Latin American Studies, University of Cambridge
Results of the multidisciplinary forensic studies on the remains of Simón Bolívar (1783-1830): filial identification and the need to review the alleged causes of his death

28 October
Julienne Weegels
CEDLA Centre for Latin American Studies & Documentation
University of Amsterdam & Visiting Scholar, Prisons Research Centre
Institute of Criminology, University of Cambridge
Negotiating power: prisoners and the state in Nicaragua

4 November
Katherine Saunders-Hastings
Urban & Political Anthropology, Institute of the Americas
University College London
Gangs and the garrison state: urban policing and (in)security politics in Guatemala

11 November
Manuel Barcia  Annual Allende Lecture
Latin American History, University of Leeds
Cause and consequence: slave trade, piracy and the law in the cases of the Spanish schooners Panda and Amistad

18 November
Maria Malta
Political Economy, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro
Research Fellow, SOAS, University of London
Authoritarian thinking in Brazil: origins and actuality

25 November
Katherine Gough
Development Geography & Urban Governance, Loughborough
Visiting Scholar, Centre of Latin American Studies, University of Cambridge
Urban dynamics: longitudinal analysis of homes and households in Pereira, Colombia

Refreshments served after seminar all welcome

SG2 Alison Richard Building  7 West Road  Cambridge  CB3 9DT

www.latin-american.cam.ac.uk