

Open Seminar Mondays 5.15pm

Centre of Latin
American
Studies

Michaelmas Term 2018

October 8

Natalia Majluf

Art Historian & Former Director of the Museo de Arte de Lima, Peru Simón Bolívar Chair, Centre of Latin American Studies, University of Cambridge

Placeless Monuments: Portraiture, History and Sites of Memory in South American Independence

15 October

Emiko Saldivar

Anthropology, University of California, Santa Barbara Visiting Scholar, Centre of Latin American Studies, University of Cambridge

Between Identity and Classification: Racial Politics after the Multicultural turn in Mexico

22 October

Bernardo Buarque de Hollanda

Visiting Fellow, University of Birmingham School of Social Sciences, Fundação Getúlio Vargas (CPDOC, FGV), Brazil

From the “land of football” to the “land of mega events”: an evaluation of the Brazilian stadiums modernization after the 2014 FIFA World Cup

29 October

Federico Subervi

Visiting Leverhulme Professor, School of Media & Communication, University of Leeds

Media, Politics & Crisis in Puerto Rico: The (Almost) Last U.S. Colony in the Western Hemisphere

5 November

Nadya Araujo Guimarães

Sociology, University of São Paulo, Brazil

Who Cares? Care Work and Care Jobs, a Latin American Perspective

12 November

Ana María Otero-Cleves

*History, Universidad de los Andes, Bogotá, Colombia
Visiting Scholar, Centre of Latin American Studies, University of Cambridge*

Popular Consumers: Foreign Goods, Citizenship, and the Politics of Consumption in Nineteenth-Century Colombia

19 November

Ana Maria Mauad

*History, Federal Fluminense University, Niterói, RJ, Brazil
Celso Furtado Visiting Fellow, St John's College, University of Cambridge*

Missing Images: From the Family Photograph Album to Public Visual Space in Latin America

Refreshments served after seminar all welcome

SG2 Alison Richard Building 7 West Road Cambridge CB3 9DT

www.latin-american.cam.ac.uk

UNIVERSITY OF
CAMBRIDGE