

ARGENTINA: YET ANOTHER CRISIS

Keynes Hall, King's College, University of Cambridge
Saturday 23 February 2019

10.15 Registration & Introduction, Felipe Hernández, Director, CLAS, Cambridge

10.30 – 11.30 Politics of the Crisis Chair: Felipe Hernández

The Macri Administration: Elected Bureaucratic Authoritarianism?
Peronism: democratisation or more of the same? Guillermo Makin,
Research Associate, CLAS, Cambridge & Universidad de Belgrano, Argentina

Is Macri a Plebiscitarian President? The UCR (Radical Civic Union) Party
Gabriela Ippolito-O'Donnell, Universidad del Salvador, Argentina

Argentina: Human Rights: Concerns and Record Graham Minter,
South America Regional Coordinator, Amnesty International, UK

11.30 – 12.00 Coffee

12.00 – 13.00 Economics and Finance of the Crisis Chair: David Rock, University of California, Santa Barbara, Senior Research Associate, CLAS, Cambridge

The IMF package: a default in the making? Héctor Luisi, Former principal economist at the Inter-American Development Bank

Argentine crises: a task for Penelope the weaving and the unweaving of crises
Daniel Ozarow, Lecturer, Middlesex University London

13.00 – 14.30 Lunch (not provided)

14.30 – 15.45 Is there a future and what does it look like? Chair: Charles Jones,
Emeritus Reader, International Relations, POLIS & a former Director, CLAS, Cambridge

The redistribution of income and its exhaustion under the Kirchners
Pedro Mendes Loureiro, Lecturer, CLAS, Cambridge

Why there has not been – so far – an outbreak of widespread protest? Four reasons arising from the politics of sensibilities of an unpredictable country
Adrián Scribano, CONICET & Gino Germani Research Institute, University of Buenos Aires, Visiting Fellow, CLAS, Cambridge

Will investors flock to Argentina or flee? Jerome Booth, Visiting Professor,
Cass Business School, Chairman, Anglia Ruskin University

15.45 – 16.15 Tea

16.15 – 17.45 Closing address Chair: Felipe Hernández

The Finance Curse and Capital Flight: some Latin American manifestations
John Christensen, Director, Tax Justice Network

16.45 – 17.30 Round Table discussion followed by wine reception

Organized by Guillermo Makin