

Latin American Studies: A Model of Indiscipline?

50th Anniversary Symposium
Centre of Latin American Studies, University of Cambridge
Alison Richard Building, 7 West Road, Cambridge

Saturday 1 October 2016

- 9.15 Registration
- 9.30 Introduction: Joanna Page (Director, Centre of Latin American Studies, Cambridge)
- 9.45-10.45 Keynote 1 (chair: Joanna Page)
Julio Ortega, Brown University:
The Latin American Transatlantic Paradigm: Balance and Perspectives
- 10.45-11.15 Coffee
- 11.15-12.45 Panel 1: New Directions in the Humanities and Social Sciences (chair: Felipe Hernández)
Sian Lazar, University of Cambridge:
A Politics of Indiscipline. Anthropology from and of Latin America
Ben Smith, University of Warwick:
The Mexican Press and the Public Sphere
Graham Denyer Willis, University of Cambridge:
Latin America and the Technologies of Indiscipline: Citizen Struggles with Insecurity
- 12.45-1.45 Lunch
- 1.45-2.30 Perspectives on Latin American Studies: New (and Old) Challenges and Opportunities (chair: Joanna Page)
Françoise Barbira-Freedman, Felipe Hernández, Charles Jones, Geoffrey Kantaris, Gabriela Ramos
- 2.30-3.30 Keynote 2 (chair: Mónica Moreno Figueroa)
Mara Viveros Vigolla, Universidad Nacional de Colombia:
De la 'extraversión' a las 'epistemologías nuestroamericanas'. Un descentramiento en clave feminista
- 3.30-4.00 Coffee
- 4.00-5.00 Panel 2: New Directions in Literary and Visual Culture Studies (chair: Rory O'Bryen)
Erica Segre, University of Cambridge:
Dark Matter/Materia oscura Hypothesis/: Indiscipline and the Poetics of Indeterminacy
Adam Sharman, University of Nottingham:
The Mother of all (In)discipline: Literature and Modernity
- 5.00-5.15 Short break
- 5.15-6.15 Keynote 3 (chair: David Lehmann)
Adrián Gorelik (CONICET/Universidad Nacional de Quilmes, Argentina):
De cerca y de lejos: Paradojas del latinoamericanismo
- 6.30- Evening wine reception and buffet for those who have registered
Crausaz-Wordsworth Building, Robinson College (on Adams Road, ten minutes' walk from the symposium venue)