

CENTRE OF LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

Open Seminar Lent Term Mondays 5pm

Seminar Room E

17 Mill Lane 2nd Floor

- | | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|--|
| 24/01/2005 | Hugo Ceron Anaya
Department of Sociology
University of Essex | From grass to greens: notes on businessmen and golf in Mexico |
| 31/01/2005 | David Wood
Department of Spanish & Spanish American Studies
King's College
University of London | Film as translation: Indian voices in militant Andean cinema |
| 07/02/2005 | Nikki Craske
Institute of Latin American Studies
University of Liverpool | Ambiguities and ambivalences in making the nation: women and politics in twentieth-century Mexico |
| 14/02/2005
(Seminar Room A) | Patrick Barr-Melej
Department of History
Iowa State University | Socialism and the self in Allende's Chile |
| 21/02/2005
(Seminar Room A) | Luis Rebaza Soralez
Department of Spanish & Spanish American Studies
King's College
University of London | The female Passion according to St. Frida: filling identitarian gaps in dominant cultural narratives |
| 28/02/2005 | Rosa de la Fuente
Universidad Complutense de Madrid | Power and space: local struggle for land and territory in Chiapas |
| 07/03/2005 | Marta Camisassa
Universidade Federal de Viçosa
Brazil & Visiting Scholar,
Department of Architecture
University of Cambridge | Brazilian architecture at the end of the nineteenth century: French or English influences? |
| Tuesday
15/03/2005 | Peter Gow
Department of Social Anthropology
University of St. Andrews | It happened in Curanja: the nationalization of Southwestern Amazonia |

ALL WELCOME